

KYCTA Charter

1 Our Purpose

Kundalini Yoga Cambodia Teachers Association (KYCTA) is the professional association for Kundalini Yoga Teachers and practitioners in Cambodia and for all those interested in supporting the extension and application of the Kundalini Yoga teachings in Cambodia.

1.1 KYCTA will

- Serve the people of Cambodia through support of the extension and application of the Kundalini Yoga teachings.
- Provide support and services to individual teachers and teachers in training and provide information about Kundalini Yoga as taught by Yogi Bhajan to members of the public.

1.2 Specifically for its Members in the Association

- Will try to ensure the quality of Kundalini Yoga extension and application of the Kundalini Yoga teachings through regular observation of teaching and project visits
- Will endorse and promote all certified teachers of Kundalini Yoga that teach and use the Kundalini Yoga technology as taught by Yogi Bhajan to the national, regional and international public
- Will serve as connection point with the regional and international Kundalini Yoga community, among others, through membership of KY-Asia, IKYTA, ...
- Will provide professional development opportunities for all teachers
- Will support new teachers with the transition from student to teacher
- Will act as a clearing house for information and communication about Kundalini Yoga

Specific Services and Activities

- Place teacher biography on the Kundalini Yoga Cambodia website and a page on 3HO.org IKYTA website
- Organize or help facilitate Teacher Training: Basic Teacher Training, Level 1 and 2, Radiant Child and other professional trainings
- Regular observation of teaching
- links to Kundalini Yoga events and networking opportunities

2 Membership and fees

- Association membership categories:
 - Certified Kundalini Yoga Teachers (all levels including Basic Teacher Training)
 - Teachers in training and practitioners in Cambodia interested to start Teacher Training
 - Those interested in supporting the extension and application of the Kundalini Yoga teachings in Cambodia.
- A person who is approved for membership is eligible to be a member of the Association on payment of the annual membership fee.
- Each member will be issued a KYCTA Membership Card entitling them to the benefits of membership (refer 1.2 above)

- The annual subscription is the relevant amount set out in Appendix 1 and is payable in advance on or before 1 March in each year.
- Cambodians who have difficulty paying the full fee amount can do seva for KYCTA.

3 General meetings

- General meetings of the Association are held quarterly.
- The date, time and place of the general meetings of the Association is agreed at each meeting.
- The general meeting is presided by the President of the Association.
- The ordinary business of the general meeting shall be-
 1. To confirm the minutes of the previous general meeting; and
 2. To elect officers of the Association; and
 3. To conduct any special business of which notice has been given to members ahead of the general meeting.

4 Responsibilities of President

- Begin and evolve the KYCTA charter with each KYCTA meeting
- Establish the connections with IKYTA and KY Asia
- Make a proposal for an association board that also includes general secretary and a treasurer
- Make a proposal for simple and light communication and decision making procedures
- Set meeting dates and meeting agenda
- Distribute meeting agenda ahead of meetings
- Record minutes and action points (with members assigned actions to complete) of meetings and distribute to KYCTA members
- Make a proposal how monitoring of extension and the application of the Kundalini Yoga teaching can be made operational.

APPENDIX 1

1. Schedule of fees

Fee	Amount (USD)
Annual membership fee - internationals	$30.00
Annual membership fee - Cambodians	$10.00